

Could It Be That's How God Feels

by Roger Ricketts, June 2005

Intro: D

Have you ever tried so hard <sup>D</sup> to make something work out right <sup>G</sup>
But all you get is tears <sup>A</sup> and a thankless losing fight <sup>D</sup>
Have you given all your love <sup>D</sup> Have you given all your time <sup>G</sup>
But no one really knows <sup>A</sup> that you're hurting deep inside <sup>D</sup>

Chorus:

Could it be that's how God feels <sup>G</sup>
When He looks upon His Son <sup>D</sup>
And He thinks about the grace <sup>A</sup>
That He's given everyone <sup>D</sup>
Cause few men know His name <sup>G</sup>
And fewer of them kneel <sup>D</sup>
So when you're talking sad <sup>A</sup>
Could it be that's how God feels <sup>D</sup> fe..els <sup>G D</sup> (at end)

When no one understands <sup>D</sup> Just how broken your heart feels <sup>G</sup>
Then think about the One <sup>A</sup> Who died on Calvary's hill <sup>D</sup>
Christ suffered there for me <sup>D</sup> And He suffered there for you <sup>G</sup>
And He can heal the pain <sup>A</sup> A broken heart is going thru <sup>D</sup> (to chorus)
