

"Paradox of Christ"

by Roger Ricketts

Dec 2003

Websters A seemingly contradictory statement that may nonetheless is true.

1 Cor 1:18 For the word of the cross is to those who are perishing foolishness, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

D G D
2 Cor 12:9 By dieing we're born-again a new person

D G A
1 Joh 5:4 In surrender we have won the war

D G D
Ps 147:3 In weakness we trust God's mighty Power

G D A
1 Joh 1:9 A servant who can glorify the Lord

Chorus: G A D G
Joh 15:4 We are but branches, grafted onto Jesus

G A D G
Joh 5:1 By faith we share the promise of life in the true vine

G A D G
Joh 12:24 We must die and decrease for the fruit to ripen

G G/D G A
Oh, the marvelous meaning of the paradox of Christ (repeat @ end)
A D <-----/

D G D
Rom 6:18 In obedience we enjoy the greatest freedom

D G A
Act 2:6 Through many tongues we praise God in one voice

D G D
Prov 12:20 By loving prayer our enemy is defeated

G D A
2 Cor 12:9 And grace is why we always can rejoice (to Chorus)

D G D
Luke 18:22 By giving, we store up Kingdom treasures

D G A
Phil 2:18 Through pouring out, our cup it overflows

D G D
1 Cor 2:14 As fools for Christ, the wise man is confounded

G D A
Jer 33:3 In humble acts our awesome God is known (to Chorus)