May, 2004 (inspired by Sarah Mitchell)

C G F G C
Early at dawn she's there in the diner greeting people with a smile
C G F G C
A cup of coffee, a gentle reminder it's good to see you, hope you are fine
Am G Am G C
God has made this today for me to show you His for a while

C G F G C
Before she comes to take your order she's offered up a silent prayer
C G F G C
May I be used by the Father to lift the burdens that you bear
Am G Am G C
And as you watch her you'll see that God has just been revealed to you there

F G C Am
Chorus: The message of this waitress is love
F G Am
It's in her actions and words
F G Am
Bringing relief like an angle of peace
F G
Coming down from above
F G C
Thru this waitress of love

C G F G C
Somehow she sees right past the curtain that people stand behind to hide
C G F G C
And she will ask with sincere motive why you are struggling deep inside
Am G Am G C
She has the message of life from her Lord Jesus Christ that abides (to chorus)

(----- music interlude played over verse -----)

C G F G C
So when you rise to meet the morning and you going out to dine
C G F G C
I hope you'll be just like this waitress who really cares if folks are fine
Am G Am G C
May you greet others this way and lift them up as you pray for their life (to chorus)
